

East St. Louis Public Library
SUMMER “CELEBRATE” READING SERIES

Celebrating Mothers

The summer “Celebrate” Reading Series consists of a monthly program of interactive reading and activities built around a seasonal theme, incorporating visual content from Linda Mitchell’s Snapshot Learning Series books, with the goal of stimulating reading and literacy.

All four sessions will be run by Linda Mitchell, author of Love Me Always, A Photographic Celebration of African-American Children From Birth to College and How are You Today? A Photographic Celebration of Children’s Moods and Attitudes. To learn more, visit www.lindamitchellbooks.com.

When: Celebrating Mothers, Saturday, May 14, 11 AM to 1 PM
 Celebrating Fathers, Saturday, June 25, 11 AM to 1 PM
 Celebrating Summer, Saturday, July –date to be announced
 Celebrating School, Saturday, August—date to be announced

Where: East St. Louis Public Library, 5300 State Street, East St. Louis, IL

This event is free and open to children ages 5 to 8. Only 20 children accepted per session. Please register by calling Lenora Cooper at the East St. Louis Public Library, (618) 394-0539. Thank you for your support for the East St. Louis Public Library programs and services.

This Reading Series concept is developed by Janice Gregory.